Mr. Glen H. Hackler
16321 E. 33rd
Kansas City, Missouri

Dear Glen:

Thank you so much for taking the time to show me the downtown congregation and to tell me something of its work on my last day in Kansas City last week. It was a pleasure to become personally acquainted with you and your family during the Training for Service, and then especially to have a few hours with you at the conclusion of the week.

I was thoroughly inspired and deeply encouraged by your faith and commitment to the inner city work. I know that you are making a great impact on the lives of many people who, without you, would have no meaning or purpose, and certainly no knowledge of Jesus Christ in their lives.

Thank you so much for a very pleasant meal and, above all, for a very informative few hours. I was encouraged and inspired, and I want you to know how much I appreciate and how much I will be praying for the work you are doing. Give my best regards to Phyllis and to your entire family. It was such a pleasure to be with you last week.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
